First General Workshop

2016/03/02

General Workshops in NEREID will involve all technology sectors, and allow for synergies among different topics and roadmap coordination. Specific application requirements will also be included, based also on the progress of the roadmap and the evolution of technology. These Workshops will build on the consolidated ITRS procedure of having two day meetings withwith some time dedicated to bilateral meetings among specific domains and plenary sessions to ensure coordination with specific application sectors. Two plenary sessions will, respectively, open the Workshop to clearly define the goals and close it with a recap the progress on each domain. Use of professional facilitators is foreseen to improve the dialogue between applications and technology experts.
